Thursday 21st October 2021

Dear Parents/Carers,

To reignite the love of books and reading this half-term we would like to invite you and the rest of our school community to join in our 'St Joseph's Book Trail'. The idea is that there will be two children chosen from each class to hide a book at the beginning of the half-term. They must hide it somewhere on the Fellgate or Hedworth estate for another person to find. Once their book is hidden, they will need the help of a grown-up to send a picture and a clue to media@stjosephsjarrow.co.uk as to where they have left the book. Inside of the front cover, there will be a message like the one attached. The book can be re-gifted to someone whom it would suit better (someone older or younger). The finder must continue the act of kindness and choose a book they no longer read and leave it for someone else to find and so it continues. If the book is found by someone else who is not from our school, they can also send it to media@stjosephsjarrow.co.uk. Please remember to write this message in the front of your book.

Thank you to the Year 6 children who competed to win the chance to have their work in the front cover and well done to Camilla-Belle Armstrong whose work was chosen to be included.

We hope you have lots of fun this half-term and take part in our book trail. Spreading a little joy, excitement and a love of reading together as a community.

Thank you

Mrs Bertram

(Literacy Lead)

ST JOSEPH'S BOOK HUNT!

Congratulations!
You have found a book
from the St Joseph's Book Hunt!

We have hidden books around Fellgate and Hedworth. If you find a book you can either: keep the book, hide the book again or give it to someone who might like it. We are doing this during the October half term. This will promote a love of reading - who knows, maybe you will love reading this book!

Now lucky finder of this book, it is your turn. Leave a message and re-gift a book you are no longer using.

Please send a photograph of you finding the book and a clue to where you have hidden your book to media@stjosephsjarrow.co.uk
