Ukraine minibus appeal: Paul Hodgson, originally from Washington, moved to the Ukraine three and a half years ago to teach Maths in the international school in Kyiv. He is transporting Ukrainian refugees to safety over the border and distributing aid. He was originally using his school's bus but that had to be returned to Kyiv leaving him without transport to continue his work, so he has started his appeal to raise funds to buy another minibus which will be used to help so many people in dire need. He is so grateful for all of the support from everyone over here. Any contributions to his GoFundMe appeal whether financially or even in terms of publicising and sharing would be so gratefully received. Please keep Paul and Nadia and all those suffering in this dreadful situation in your prayers. To donate see <https://gofund.me/12e9c786>
