Bishop Robert writes:

The Queen has been a role model for many, in her constancy to service and her commitment to Christian faith and values, living those values throughout her life. Notably at the young age of twenty-one, Queen Elizabeth made her solemn vow to serve the Nation and Commonwealth throughout her life – an inspirational act of vocation and commitment.

Queen Elizabeth has represented stability throughout her reign and was this country's longest serving monarch. Although this is a time of very great sorrow, it is also time for gratitude, for a life well lived in duty and in service. We pray for the repose of her soul. May she rest in peace.

Our prayers and thoughts are also with our new Monarch, His Majesty King Charles III. We pray that King Charles will be guided by the message of Jesus Christ to have the strength to carry on the vital role of the monarch to ensure stable government and national unity.

Funeral Collections in Saint Bede's and Saint Joseph's : A basket is often put out at back of church at the end of a funeral for those leaving to make a voluntary donation to a nominated charity. Such collections are only taken with the permission of the Parish. Many local families face financial hardship in the coming months. To help them, donations in these baskets put out in St. Bede's and St. Joseph's will be taken exclusively for the Children of Jarrow. In a small way it will help those families with children who face the prospect of going hungry. The situation will be reviewed as circumstances change. I hope that those whose loved one's funerals are taking place in these two churches will understand – Fr. Adrian.
